

Conference Objectives

- 1. Enhance scientific information and data exchange on current state-of-the-art research for methyl bromide alternatives.
- 2. Provide a forum for cross scientific disciplines and cross agricultural commodity information exchange.
- 3. Develop and provide conference proceedings as an information source on the state-of-the-art methyl bromide alternatives to Legislators, Government Policy Officials, Researchers, Users of methyl bromide and all other interested sources.
- 4. Provide a central focus for data gathering on potential alternatives for methyl bromide for future evaluation and prioritization.
- 5. Monitor annually the status for development of viable alternatives for methyl bromide uses.
- 6. Evaluation of technology transfer and incentive programs for implementation of proposed alternatives.